

Financial Assistance for Pets

Pet Assistance of San Diego 619.544.1222

- No medical assistance, spay/neuter only
- Visit <http://www.petassistancefoundation.org/> on the Web

SNAP (Spay Neuter Action Project) 866.772.9287

- Can provide referrals for low-cost spay/neuter
- Visit <http://www.snap-sandiego.org/> on the Web

County of San Diego Animal Services 858.694.3900

- Spay/neuter vouchers for up to $50 off service
- Rabies vaccines ($6) and microchipping ($20) on Thursdays from 1pm – 3pm
- Visit <http://www.sddac.com/> on the Web

Pet Network 760.744.5300

- low-cost vaccines, heartworm test, fl/fiv combo test, health certificates, microchipping, de-worming, and flea control
- only preventive health care, no spay/neuter
- additional discounts for seniors
- mobile clinics all over San Diego County and parts of Riverside County
- Visit <http://www.petnetwork.us/> on the Web

PAWS (Pets Are Wonderful Support) 619.297.7297

- Assistance for ill, elderly, low-income and homebound people with pets
- Membership required, waiting list
- Only non-emergency services
- Visit <http://www.pawssdc.org/> on the Web

Angels 4 Animals 916.941.9119

- Assistance for animals that face being put to sleep or surrendered by their owners due to the lack of available finances for treatment
- Visit <http://www.angels4animals.org/> on the Web

IMOM (In Memory of Magic) 866.230.2164

- Internet-based, all communications done via email
- Financial assistance for emergency veterinary care
- Visit <http://www.imom.org/> on the Web

Care Credit 800.839.9078

- Provides a line of credit for veterinary care
- Visit <http://www.carecredit.com/> on the Web

United Animal Nations 916.429.2457

- Emergency veterinary care for low-income families and rescuers
- Encouraged to use the Web site and apply for financial assistance
- Visit <http://www.uan.org/> on the Web

Feline Veterinary Emergency Assistance must apply online

- Provides emergency veterinary care for life-or-death situations
- Visit <http://www.fveap.org/> on the Web or, for emergencies, email fveap@earthlink.net